

Privacy Statement

YOUR PRIVACY IS IMPORTANT TO US

At the West Virginia Air National Guard Federal Credit Union, we are committed to providing you with the finest products backed by consistent, top-quality service. And while information is fundamental to our ability to do this, we fully recognize the importance of keeping your personal and account information secure.

We protect your information from unauthorized access, using established and exacting security standards.

We collect and use customer information - information obtained from applications and from account usage, as well as information derived from other sources - to the extent needed to conduct our business and to meet the highest quality service standards.

We allow others to offer their products and services to our customers when we think our customers may find these services of value. When we share customer information with them, we require them to protect this information as we would and we audit their activities to ensure that they do.

We require any organization that provides account services to our credit union to meet our privacy standards.

We exchange customer information to the extent permissible by law, for the purposes of credit reporting, verification and risk management.

We are dedicated to servicing your needs - for privacy as well as for programs that you may find valuable. You can be confident that your financial privacy is a top priority of this credit union.
